MAGUIRE AGENCY'S SUNDEEN NAMED 2013 AGENT OF THE YEAR BY MIIAB

ROSEVILLE, Minn., May 20, 2013 – Maguire Agency's vice president of sales and commercial lines producer, Matt Sundeen, has been named Agent of the Year for 2013 by the Minnesota Independent Insurance Agents & Brokers \(MIIAB\). Sundeen was chosen for his commitment to the industry, to clients and to the community.

"Matt approaches everything in life with enthusiasm and dedication," said Matt Clysdale, CIC, CPCU, president of Maguire, "which benefits our agency, clients, the insurance industry and the local community, where he devotes considerable volunteer time. This award is much deserved. We are proud of Matt and his accomplishments."

Sundeen has been representing the needs of local and national businesses with Maguire Agency since 1994. He is heavily involved in the insurance industry and the greater business community serving on several boards, including three terms on the International Association of Structural Movers board, and past presidencies of the Minnesota Independent Insurance Agents Region 9 and the MidStates Housemovers Association, where he continues to serve on multiple committees. He has a bachelor's degree from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota and maintains his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) and Accredited Advisor in Insurance (AAI) designations.

Sundeen is a generous contributor to the community as a board member and coach for the Roseville Area Youth Hockey Association, past chair of the Roseville Education Planning Advisory Committee; and past president of the Roseville 707 Rotary Club and Roseville Area Schools Foundation. He and his wife Karen are also active volunteers at their church and children's schools.

Maguire Agency offers property/casualty insurance, employee benefits, and personal insurance lines from a wide range of highly rated, financially stable insurance companies. For
